

Americans with Disabilities Act Statement:

The International Sculpture Center (ISC) is committed to ensuring that accessibility guidelines and requirements as set forth by the federal government are implemented to the best of our abilities. As an arts service organization, the ISC does not have a regular space for exhibitions or public programs. All events organized by ISC are held in facilities rented or donated uniquely for specific events, and the ISC works closely with these organizations to ensure accessibility needs are met to the best of our abilities. Office area and other programs are ADA accessible. The ISC is committed to making the arts accessible for all people with disabilities.
